The Lesson of the Elections.

The result in Ohio and Pennsylvania, says the Louisville JOURNAL, could not have been foreseen. There was something more than a fair show for Pendleton and Packer. There defeat is therefore disappointing to the reasonable expectations of the Democratic party.

It is no part of political wisdom to seize upon occasions of this kind for the enforcement of new or peculiar views of party doctrine or party policy. Nor is it very graceful to use them as texts for speculation. They are best improved when they are taken as the basis of deliberate and pains taking self-inspection; for careful and honest general inquiry; and for renewed allegiance to the spir it and purpose of such organized political action as they must more or less seriously affect.

The policy of a party should not be fashioned under excitement; but its aims are usually the same under all circumstances; and the sooner we admit that the business of the Democratic party is to beat the Republicans, the better it will be for us.

We too often delude ourselves with sophisms which we mistake for principles. The real difference between the Republicans and the Democrats is this, that the Republicans are proscriptive and the Democrats are not; for on most other national questions both parties are at sea. Suffrage, for example, is a State question. If Virgima wants to take Sambo as a diet, that is Virginia's concern. If Indiana does not wish to take him, Indiana can leave him alone. Free trade is not yet fairly before the country. The currency is but a speculative question. Mr. Pendleton has lost on a favorite scheme of his; and Mr. Packer entertains some notions about the tariff, which would not jump well with our notions in Kentucky.—There is nothing in all this.

The Democratic party is in opposition. Its mission is undoubtedly the restoration of the Government to its original purity, or to some point as near its source as possible; but, in order to accomplish this work, we must first beat the Radicals, and in order to do that we must unite the various elements of opposition to the prevailing power. We cannot afford to criticise every man's passport who is willing to enlist against the Radicals. We cannot afford to square every applicant for an admission ticket by our peculiar prejudices. It is a free fight, and we must have a fair margin to go on; and when we come to organize for active and immediate service we shall have shaped ourselves by that sort of liberal and kind discussion which will most surely disclose the situation to us as it will most surely fit us the one to the other.

This is what stood for unceasingly, this and this only, and we stand for it now. There is no new alignment needed. There is no new departure called for. These things will take care of themselves. But there is needed a spirit of inquiry, a knowledge of the situation, a willingness to debate questions of party welfare candidly and temperately, a cordial sentiment of Democratic unity in spite of any differences, great or small, which may be found among the various elements that make up the Democratic body.

We have three years to go on. They ought to produce their lessons. These very reverses are not without their lesson. We take them in the way of political fortune, which, like the web of our life, comes tangled, good and ill together. Better luck, we hope, next time, and better than this, we do not find in the immediate situation, which, though sown with obstructions, is not gloomy or discouraging. A good many things will happen this side of 1872. The distance itself is a margin. We should add to it a business-like intelligence and cordial amenity of disposition; and, seeking light as we proceed, entertain a steady faith in the capacity of popular forms and in the virtue of the people, whose verdicts we are bound to respect whether they be for us or against us.

An Astonished Court.

A few days ago, says the New Orleans PICAYUNE, an old lady and a young one found themselves in court, charged with disturbing the peace. The officer's statement was clearly given, and certainly disclosed an equal culpability in both. It was evident, however, that the court inclined a favorable judgment to the youngest, and the scales of justice were rapidly tipping in her favor.

"Why did you abuse this young lady?" the magistrate demanded of the old one.

"I had a right to!" was the calm reply.

"What was she doing?"

"Keeping company with a very improper character!"

"And what is that to you?"

"She's my daughter."

"Oh, indeed! and you think the person was an improper character?"

"I do sir!"

"Do you know he was?"

"I don't know his name. I have seen him frequently prowling around after night."

And then, as if actuated by a sudden impulse, the old lady adjusted her spectacles, peered curiously at the court from under her green sunbonnet, and then exclaimed:

"Good lack! good lack! Why, you're the man!"

"Me! me!" exclaimed the astonished Court. "Me! woman, did you say me?"

Again the spectacles were adjusted, and the curious gaze prolonged, while the old lady nodded her head at intervals.

"Yes, yes, it's the same ugly face. I'm sure of it; but I'll forgive you this time; I'll forgive you." And the old lady hobbled away, leaving the Court gasping with astonishment, and unable to interpose an objection to her departure.

A strange story comes from Jerusalem, by way of a Rabbi of Hungary concerning a vision which appeared to an Israelite worshipping near Solomon's Temple last month. It was a column of fire, from which proceeded a voice warning the devotee of the coming this year of the Messiah. The man so addressed then went to the city and spoke prophetically of what he had heard. Thereupon the people treated him as an impostor, and some even went so far as to seek his life; but he, as if miraculously endowed with more than human strength, fought hundreds of his assailants, and when afterwards a battalion of soldiers was sent to arrest him, baffled them in their efforts to capture him.

A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.—Sorrow sobers us, and makes the mind genial. And in sorrow we love and trust our friends more tenderly, and the dead become dearer to us. And just as the stars shine out in the nights, so there are blessed faces that look at us in our grief, though before their features were fading from our recollection. Suffering! Let no man dread it too much, because it is better for him, and it will help to make him sure of being immortal.—It is not in the bright days, but only in the solemn night, that other worlds are to be seen shining in the long distances. And it is sorrow—the night of the soul—that we see the farthest, and know ourselves natives of infinity and sons and daughters of the Most High!

Bloody doings are reported from Jackson county, Fla. Columbus Sullivan was shot in going from his dwelling to his gin-house, and on the 1st inst. Col. McClellan, a prominent lawyer of Marianna, was badly wounded and his daughter killed. Calvin Rogers and other negroes circumstances point out as the perpetrators. Oscar Granberry, one of the negroes suspected, was killed on last Saturday morning.

Spending $50,000 a year out of an income of $5,000 caused a New York cashier to default.

HOW TO BUILD A CORN-CRIB.—How to have a rat-proof corn-crib is a great question among farmers. A correspondent of the New York Farmer's Club gives the following experience:

"I have a corn-crib that has stood for twenty years, and has never had a rat, and but one mouse in it, to my knowledge. Posts ten or eleven feet long, and eight inches square; mortise two feet from one end, for end sills, two inch mortise with tusk.—Taper post from sill to the end, by hewing off the inside until the end is reduced to four inches diameter; make smooth with draw-knife, and nail on tin smooth half way to the end, below the sill. Let sills be eight inches square; also end tie them and the rafter plates strong with moderate interties. Brace well, and lath up and down with three-quarter inch lath; dovetail or counter-sink joists crosswise; lay the floor, and board up the ends with ungrooved boards; let each bent be twelve feet long, six feet wide at the sill, and seven and a half feet at plate, and if full to peak it will hold 250 bushels. I never had an ear to hurt on account of the great width. If preferred, lay the floor with lath or narrow boards, with room for ventilation. Each post should stand on stone, about three inches from the ground, and each stone have a foundation two feet square and below the frost,

It seems that in one of the courts in which John C. Breckinridge practices there is a flush of Generals, Colonels, and Captains. There are rebel Generals and Yankee Generals; there are Yankee Colonels and Confederate Colonels; there are Majors and Captains who wore the blue and the gray, all mixed up so that the Judge is often puzzled to distinguish one from another. and sometimes muddles their titles in a most grotesque and embarrassing manner to himself and to them. Breckinridge is a person of tact and readiness, and seeing the difficulty, he very summarily and successfully proposed to relieve it by applying the civil title "Mr." to each and every member of the bar regardless of military antecedents and distinctions. An Alabama paper denounces this as "truckling to the Radicals," and that is what one would think drawing a point to the "nub end of the invisible."

AN IMPERIAL MORMON.—The Emperor of China is fifteen years old, and is to be married this year with immense pomp, to his first and chief wife, his Empress. He will be simultaneously provided with second and third wives; and from all parts of the empire victims are being collected to swell the list of his harem. Every Tartar family, we believe, is obliged to contribute its quota. Local selections are first made, and the holocaust is sent to Pekin, where a fresh selection takes place, and a "chosen" number are condemned to a life-long seclusion. They are not allowed to see their relations; may never see their lord and master, and in the event of his death they are still condemned to perpetual isolation and celibacy.

A terrible casualty occurred at Fitchburg, Ky., on the night of the 28th ult. A small frame dwelling in which five persons were sleeping, was burned to the ground, and three of the inmates perished—a father, mother and child, their names being William Kennedy, Bridget, his wife, and George, the child. John Kennedy, a brother of the deceased, narrowly escaped from the burning ruin. Mr. Abner Weisman manfully rescued one child of the lost parents by breaking into the side of the house near where it lay and snatching it from the remorseless flames. The bodies of the three deceased were burned to a crisp.

On Thursday night last, about nine o'clock a light was discovered shining in the narrow lane between the old S. E. Moore place and Store of R. A. Sizer—and upon examination, a number of boxes over which kerosene oil had been poured was found in flames. The boxes were speedily knocked in the Street and no damage resulted.

When it is remembered at what an early hour this occurred, before the Stores had been closed and numbers of persons were passing on the Street it will be seen how daring was the attempt.—Ta. boro' Southerner.

A little five-year old boy was being instructed in morals by his mother. The old lady told him that all such terms as "By golly," "By jingo," "By thunder," &c., were only minced oaths, and but little better than any other profanity. In fact, she said, he could tell a profane oath by the prefix of "by—all such were oaths." "Well, then, mother," said the little hopeful, "there,s a big oath in the newspapers By telegraph!" The old lady gave it up, and the boy is bewildered on morals.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—We learn, says the Grensboro Patriot, that Mr. Thos. Moore, a worthy citizen from the Northen part of Guilford county, was robbed last Saturday night of about $40.00. We have not heard the particulars of the affair, but learn it occurred near Paisley,s Bridge, and that the parties were negroes.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Great Vitalizer.

This title may be fairly given to a restorative which has taken precedence of all other tonics and alterative preparations for a period of nearly twenty years. During that long interval HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS may be truly said to have enjoyed unrivalled popularity. Many preparations have been got up to compete with it, but they have all fallen into its wake or sunk into oblivion for lack of patronage. From the first, this now world-renowned Vegetable Tonic has been both medically and financially successful. Every year has added to the number of its friends, and the demand for it, based solely upon the experemental proofs of its excellence as a preventive and curative, seems to have no assignable limit. The medical profession sanction and approve its use, and it is now at the head of the class of medicines to which it belongs, the admitted, undisputed SOVEREIGN TONIC OF THE AGE. The statistics of the United States Revenue department will verify the statement that it stands alone and unapproved in the magnitude of its sales as compared with those of any other proprietory remedy advertised on this side of the Atlantic.

THE EXPLANATION of this fact may be comprised in a few words. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is at once the purest, the safest, and the most potent of all vegetable tonics, and the best antidote to every variety of malarious disease. Hence it is especially adapted to the present season of chilling dews and unwholesome vapors.

FORTY THOUSAND CASES OF GOODS were shipped from our house in One Year, to families, clubs and merchants, in every part of the country, from Maine to California, amounting in value to over

ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

Our facilities for transacting this immense business are better than ever before. We have agents in all the principal cities to purchase goods from the manufactuers, importers, and others for Cash, and often at an immense sacrifice from the original cost of production.

Our stock consists, in part, of the following goods:—

Shawls, Blankets, Quilts, Cottons, Ginghams, Dress Goods, Table Linen, Towels, Hosiery, Gloves, Skirts, Corsets, &c., &c.

Silver-Plated Ware, Spoons plated on Nickle Silver, Desert Forks, five bottle plated Casters, Britannia Ware, Glass Ware, Table and Pocket Cutlery in great variety.

Elegant French and German Fancy Goods, Beautiful Photograph Albums the newest and choicest styles in Morocco and Velvet Bindings.

Morocco Travelling Bags, Handkerchief and Glove Boxes, &c.

Gold and Plated Jewelry, of the newest styles.

We have also made arrangements with some of the leading Publishing Houses, that will enable us to sell the standard and latest works of popular authors at about one half the regular price:—such as BYRON, MOORE, BURNS, MILTON, and TENNYSON'S WORKS, in full Gilt and Cloth Bindings,—and hundreds of others.

These and everything else for

ONE DOLLAR FOR EACH ARTICLE.

We do not offer a single article of merchandise, that can be sold by regular dealers at our price. We do not ask you to buy goods from us unless we can sell them cheaper than you can obtain them in any other way,—while the greater part of our goods are sold at about

One-half the Regular Rates.

We want good reliable agents in every part of the Country. By employing your spare time to form Clubs and sending us orders, you can obtain the most liberal commissions, either in Cash or Merchandise, and all goods sent by us will be as represented, and we guarantee satisfaction to every one dealing with our house.

Agents should collect ten cents from each customer and forward to us in advance, for Descriptive Checks of the goods we sell.

The holders of the Checks have the privilege of either purchasing the article thereon described, or of exchanging for any article mentioned on our catalogue, numbering over 350 different articles—not one of which can be purchased in the usual way for the same money.

The advantages of first sending for Checks are these: We are constantly buying small lots of very valuable goods, which are not on our catalogues, and for which we issue checks till all are sold; besides, in every large club we will put checks for WATCHES, QUILTS, BLANKETS, DRESS PATTERNS, or some other article of value, giving some members of the club an opportunity of purchasing an article for about one quarter of its value.

"In every order amounting to over $50, accompanied by the cash, the Agent may retain $2 00, and in every order of over $100, $3.00 may be retained to

PAY THE EXPRESS CHARGES.

This offer is more especially to assist Agents in the Western and Southern States, but is open to all customers.

CAROLINA TIMES.

CHARLOTTE.

R. H. ALDRICH, Local Editor.

Tuesday, October 19, 1869.

The following new advertisement appears in this morning issue for the first time: Druvs,&c.—Kilgore & Cureton.

Our citizens have been richly entertained by several lectures from S. M. Hewlett. He has gone from here to Savannah, where we hope he will be warmly welcomed. Give him a little time and he will make friends for himself and be sure to draw crowds. He is a natural orator—a great mimic—full of anecdote—a shrewd man and an observant one—has seen the world—is a gentleman and a scholar, and can entertain a crowd.

Augusta Constitutionalist

☞ Ladies, go to H. & B. Emanuel's to buy French wove Corsets at 90 cents.

Hewlett lectures to-night for the benefit ——of all who go to hear him. We do not know of a safer perscription for the blues than one of Hewlett's lectures. If you are feeling wretched, don't fail to get a good seat. If you are unwell, he'll make you feel better. He once accomplished the arduous feat of producing a smile on the face of an elderly gentleman of the "unmarried persuasion." who had been given up as incurable by the "Society for the Promotion of Good Jokes.

There are lecturers who have a vast amount of human misery to answer for; and some of the greatest triumphs of human endurance have been exhibited in listening to the end of one of their insufferable lectures. Such have brought 'the lecture,' as an institution, into disrepute; but Hewlett is of another school. He exhilarates, refreshes, cheers, and never inebriates. He intoxicates his audiences with what Bayard Taylor calls the "wine of thought."

"And the crimson breakers flame and shine, Brimming o'er with the draught divine."

Daily Wisconsin.

☞ Ladies, go to H. & B. Emanuel's to buy fine Alpacas at 85 cents per yard.

To the Citizens of Charlotte, N. C.:

Mr. S. M. Hewlett, who has during the last twenty-five years obtained both North and South an enviable reputation as a natural orator, humorist and accomplished gentleman, will deliver a series of lectures at Oates' Hall, in this city, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The first lecture will be delivered on Monday night, 25th subject "Hits at the Times;" second lecture, Tuesday night, 26th subject "Muzzle that Dog;" third lecture, Wednesday night, 27th, subject "Power of Habits."

Mr. Hewlett comes to this city after having delivered a series of lectures before the Y. M. C. A. at Raleigh, N. C.

The Y. M. C. A. with confidence appeal to a generous public to sustain them in this effor to provide something pleasant, entertaining and improving, for the winter evenings and at the same time aid them in their efforts to do good.

Admission each lecture, 50 cents

Tickets can be obtained at Drug and Book Stores.

☞ Gentlemen, go to H. & B. Emanuel's to buy fine Custom made clothing.

Mrs. Griffith, of Pulaski county, Va., has presented her husband, within the past twelve months, five children, two at one birth, and three at the second. The little "darlings" are all hale, hearty and strong, and are thriving rapidly.

The Petersburg (Va.) Index says: "Venison is quite plentiful in our market, though the season may as yet be considered early. The fact is, deer are so plentiful in all the adjacent country that but little difficulty is had in killing them. We have seen several very fine bucks for sale on the market, and the probability is, venison will be cheaper than usual this fall and winter."

SUSPENDED.—The last number of the Salem Press announced its discontinuance for the lack of patronage. We regret exceedingly that our people should suffer their local papers to languish and die for the want of patronage. Every family ought to take its local paper and two or three from other points. Money thus spent is well spent.

☞ Go to H. & B. Emanuel's to buy blankets.

MR. EDWARD COLEMAN and Miss Emily Jordon, who have recently been playing in "Fromosa" at Chicago, and who were accused of having committed elopement, both indignantly deny the charge. They are in the papers this morning, and speak right out before folks. They only left Chicago on the same train—that's all.

NOTICE.—
We hereby notify the public that, from and after this date, we employ no agents for the sale of Gregory's Dyspeptic Mixture.
Neither are there any interested parties with us. We are the inventors, sole proprietors, and only manufacturers of the GENUINE ARTICLE, and our individual signatures accompany each bottle—and all orders and remittances must be made to Drs. W. W. & R. E. GREGORY, at Charlotte, N. C.

In assuming the entire charge of this invaluable remedy, we present it to you in a new dress, and have reduced the price to $1.50 per bottle, to bring it within the reach of all. In the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle will be seen the certificates of the most distinguished physicians, judges and divines, in the State, and we only ask for it a trial, that dyspeptics may be convinced of its curative virtues.

A liberal discount to the trade.

CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has

DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF FORTY PER CENT.

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

PRUDENCE AND CAUTION

which has ever guided this company. It has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES

which is a success really remarkable, and far ahead of any company of like period in America or Europe; while its handsome dividend shows the economy of its administration, and the

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

AND GAS BURNERS,

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.

If your Watch should need Repairing,
Don't get mad and go to swearing;
Just take it into Hales' Shop,
He will fix it so it will not stop.
He warrants his work all for a year,
When it is used with proper care.
He will charge no more than what's fair,
He deals with all men on the square.
